

Concurrent Educational Sessions 2011

All teaching sessions will be held in the large group room

Bring your laptops or iPads to these sessions.

Tuesday 1:30pm to 2:30pm
iPads and social networking in the clinical setting Hear about Duke's iPad project with Medical residents and share your favorite killer Apps. Open discussion - social networking and the clinician. Wiki: https://sites.google.com/site/dukeebm/home Instructors: Martha Adams, Megan von Isenburg, and Connie Schardt
Wednesday 1:30pm to 2:30pm	Wednesday 2:30pm to 3:15pm
PubMed Overview of searching PubMed, including using the MeSH database, Clinical Queries and the Single Citation Matcher. Handouts: PubMed Basics Instructor: Anne Powers	PubMed: MyNCBI How to set up search filters, save searches and set up an email Table-of-Contents alert. Handouts: Saving searches in MyNCBI Setting up filters in MyNCBI Setting up Table of Contents Instructor: Adrienne Leonardelli
Thursday 1:30pm to 2:30pm	Thursday 2:30pm to 3:15pm
Collaborative Tools on the Web Overview of web-based tools that make collaborating easier – examples of tools include Doodle, DropBox, Delicious, Wikispaces, GoogleDocs and Google Reader Wiki: https://sites.google.com/site/dukeebm/home Instructor: Megan von Isenburg and Connie Schardt	Free Alternatives to EndNote Quick overview of free web-based citation management programs that help you gather, organize and share the results of your research. Links: Handouts: Instructor: Brandi Tuttle and Emily Mazure